

5 ways to make Outlook work for you

1 Sign off in style

Open a new message.

On the ribbon, select Signature, then Signatures.

Select New and name your signature.

Now, add your contact information.

How-to steps and video: aka.ms/outlooksignature

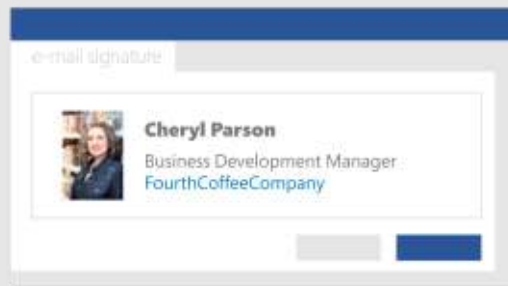

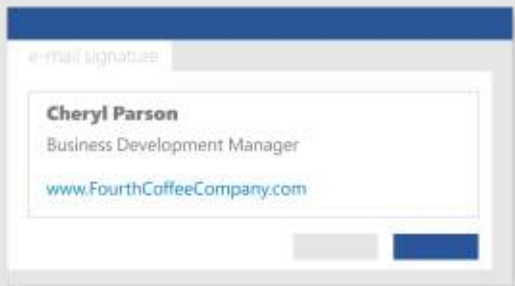

Text

Logos

Links

Images

2 Get attention with a mention

The @ symbol is the key to ensuring your email gets noticed. Plus, it's an easy way to add people to the To line.

Type

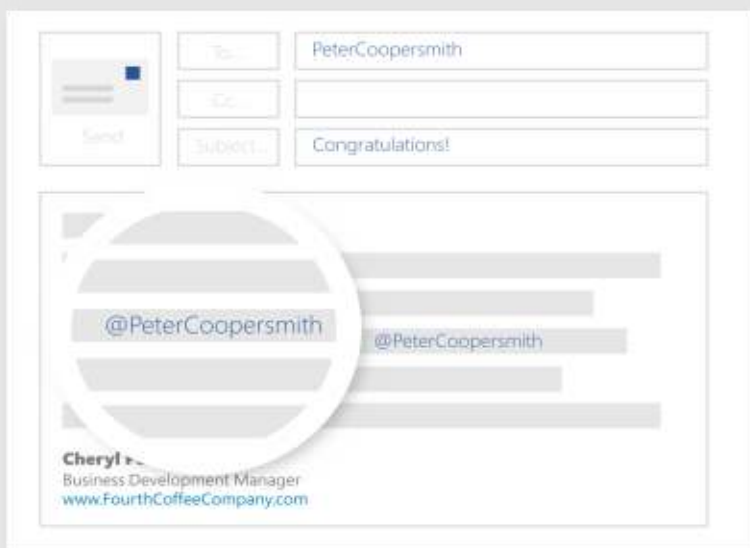

before a person's name anywhere in the body of the email.

Everyone you @mention is automatically added to the To line. Outlook will show the @ symbol in their message list in their inbox to get their attention.

How-to steps and video: aka.ms/outlook@mention

Chat and co-author Word, Excel, and PowerPoint files. See aka.ms/collaborate

3 Work together on one file

Select a file from your computer.

Attach the file to your message.

Select the drop-down next to the file name.

Upload to OneDrive.

4 Don't forget a thing with reminders

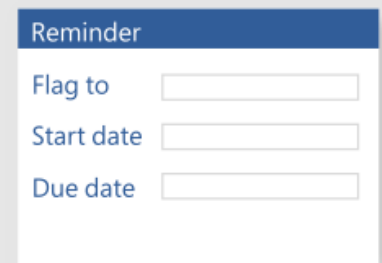

Flag time-sensitive messages to remind you to follow up, reply, call, and more.

Select the flag icon in the message list.

Right-click the flag and select Add reminder.

Set your reminder options.

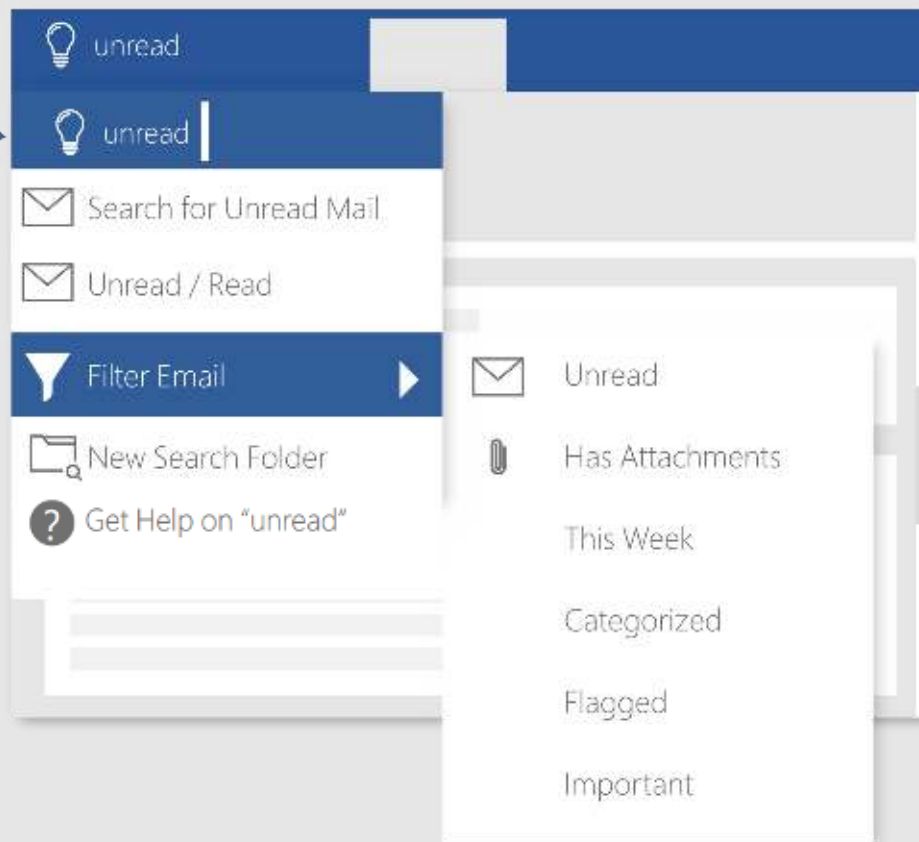

5 Have questions? Ask "Tell me"

Use the Tell me what you want to do box to learn more about all the things you can do in Outlook.

How-to steps and video:
aka.ms/outlooktellme

Type an action, for example, unread.

Then select one of the search results or select Get Help.

See more tips, videos, help, and training

Visit aka.ms/officetips

These experiences are available in Outlook 2016 and Outlook for Office 365.

